In response to an earlier request I left with David Martin, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, a list prepared by CI Staff of specialists in the field of Soviet and international Communist activity who might be considered as potential witnesses for testimony on the clandestine communist propaganda apparatus. I also left with Martin copies of two unsourced documents on Communist party organizations. I suggested to Martin that he use these documents strictly as source material without any direct quotation or attribution. He was most pleased to receive these two items which he had not seen before.
